Harry:

This is in response to Carroll's and your question about referring to our new Overseas Pay Schedule as the "Foreign Schedule" (FS) in order to track more closely with the Department. We agree that it would simplify things if we used such a designator. Unfortunately,

In addition, a considerable amount of work and time has been invested in reprogramming both OF and OP computer systems to accept the additional three letter GS designations for the six pay categories covered by the Overseas Pay Schedule. (They are in addition to the numerous other three-letter GS schedules being used for Engineers, Doctors, Clericals

In view of the foregoing, we plan to continue with the three-letter GS designator for the Overseas Pay Schedule for the time being. Should its usage and/or later event suggest a need for exact conformity with the Department's usage, we will keep Carroll's suggestion in mind.

Henry/Carroll - We're pushing hard on a proposal for a new CIA scale which will incorporate this plus all other prof & clerical scales and separate us from GS equivalent. If we can avoid it, I'd prefer not to make piecemeal changes in the interim

Harry, re our discussion yesterday on the overseas pay scale and State's view of same. How about a GS (General Schedule) for domestic assignments and FS (Foreign Schedule) for overseas. This would track closely with the Department FS (Foreign Service) pay system and would be consistent with the Department's agreement to refer to all overseas personnel (ours & theirs) as FS-salary versus FSO FS, FE etc. Just a thought.
